

SUGGESTED TALKING POINTS

1. We are pleased at the excellent state of our relations with Spain particularly in the field of military cooperation and with the growing trade between us.

2. The Minister's visit to several countries in the Far East must have given him a new idea of the problems the West faces there and we know we can continue to count on Spain's support in this area as in others.

3. Americans are following with sympathetic interest the great changes in Spain which are drawing her closer to the Western community where she belongs.
